07-03-2010

Hello and welcome from us all. We are really pleased to have you with us today. You'll find lots of friendly faces and people from all ages and cultures to talk to. We hope you feel at home with us and enjoy the presence of God.

Join us in the café on the first floor after both meetings. There you can find out all you need to know about the life of the church at the Help Desk.

Honoured by the King

“So Mephibosheth ate at David's table like one of the king's sons.” 2 Samuel 9:11b

Last week, a few friends threw me a surprise birthday party. I was in awe at how much effort they had gone to orchestrate it, and even more when I found out they had planned it for weeks. I thought to myself, “Why would anyone think about me?”

A couple of Sundays before, Dave Emmett preached about eating at God's table and knowing our true identity as sons and daughters of the king. He told the story of King David in 2 Samuel 9, who invited crippled Mephibosheth to eat regularly at his table as though he was the King's own son.

From then on, the Holy Spirit reminded me that I was worth more than I thought. I repented of my small thinking and low opinions of myself, as though I was of so little value to my friends that they should plan anything for my birthday.

For a long time, false humility robbed me of my true identity. But Dave's message and the surprise birthday really changed me. That night, I felt honoured and recognised. I was certainly worth all their time and effort in planning the birthday-do.

This is the same honour God has given to us. We are to know our self-worth and our God-given rights as the King's sons and daughters, the right to sit next to him and dine with him. We as individuals are highly favoured and loved by the King himself. We can now live a life of freedom and integrity because Jesus took our shame and in exchange gave us his honour when he died for us.
